Dear Counsellor,

On the night of 11 June 2019, plainclothes security forces arrested Ibrahim Ezz El-Din on the street in the area where he lives in Moqattam, Cairo. He has been forcibly disappeared since then. Following his arrest, his family and lawyers unsuccessfully enquired about him at the Moqattam police station. The family and lawyers also sent a telegram to the Public Prosecutor and filed a complaint regarding his disappearance. Nevertheless, Ibrahim Ezz El-Din's whereabouts are still unknown.

I urge you to immediately reveal the whereabouts of Ibrahim Ezz El-Din. Please ensure that he has access to his lawyers and family and is protected from torture and other ill-treatment. All those responsible for his disappearance must be brought to justice. Unless charged with an internationally recognizable crime, Ibrahim Ezz El-Din must be released immediately.

Yours sincerely,
